

A free market requires a difference of opinion, and the recognition of dissent. This is curtailed by controlling the mass media, which will merely echo each other, and the "official" line put out by the government. A one sided approach to reality is anathema to freedom, and limited ownership of the airways encourages suppression of dissent. Keep the airways free for differences of opinion!